LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

country prices fell off 1 or 2 cents. Commission houses acted upon the assumption that it was better to work off the stock as rapidly as possible, to avoid any accumulation, and many eggs were sold down to 26c. Butter was scarce yesterday and prices firm. Arrivals of poultry were large for both live and dressed, and prices were weak and lower. The market for yeal calves was easier on increased receipts. Small hogs were in good demand, with large sizes dull. Potatoes are now scarce and prices higher, and an improvement is noted in all the better grades of fruit.

(Prices quoted are wholesale.)
